About Us

Born in Richmond, British Columbia, MotionGrey is a proudly Canadian-owned company redefining the modern workspace. For 9 years, we've delivered ergonomic furniture built to support healthier, more productive environments, from corporate offices and schools to government institutions and healthcare organizations.

What started as a small local operation has grown into a national presence, serving over 500+ offices across Canada and 100,000+ Canadians annually. Our products are trusted by teams at Xylem, UBC, IREN, and hundreds of small and mid-sized businesses who value quality, reliability, and service — backed by 7,000+ customer reviews.

At MotionGrey, our mission is simple:

Empower better work through movement.

Whether it's standing desks, ergonomic chairs, or custom workspace solutions, our focus remains on combining function, design, and value to enhance the way people work every day.
